

BioBlitz Teacher's Resource Guide

Here is all you need to conduct your school's own educational school BioBlitz...

Materials

Clipboard
Pencils
Thermometer
Paper strips to test the wind
Worksheets - copies of the BioBlitz worksheet brochure

Optional Materials

Field guides-Peterson First Guides, Golden Guides
Digital camera
Magnifying glass
Yardstick or ruler
Binoculars
Bug Boxes, or other containers for temporary collection of specimens.

Suggested Reading

What's Alive by Kathleen Weidner Zoehfeld; Harper Trophy Publisher

The Empty Lot by Dale Fife; Sierra Club Books Publisher

Just A Dream by Chris Van Allsburg; Houghton Mifflin Publisher

Farewell to Shady Glade by Bill Peet; Houghton Mifflin Publisher

Common Ground: The Water Earth, and Air We Share by Molly Bang;
Blue Sky Press Publisher

I Took a Walk by Henry Cole; Greenwillow Publisher

Resources Available:

All educational materials are available to download as printable documents at the Great Swamp Watershed

Website: www.greatswamp.org/bioblitz. They include:-

- Introductory Activities: Living vs. non-living things pre-activity
Introduction to observation activity
BioBlitz Ethical student's pledge
- Resource listing and suggested follow up activity materials.
- Reporting procedures.
- Vocabulary list.
- Bio/blitz survey form brochure.
- Procedure for posting school results back to the Great Swamp Watershed Association Website.