

Jose Barquin

Corporate Vice President
CCS Fundraising, New York, NY

Jose is currently a Corporate Vice President at CCS Fundraising, a strategic fundraising consulting firm that partners with nonprofits to raise funds and strengthen organizations. He brings with him two decades of experience working for leading nonprofits to design and implement fundraising initiatives, including major capital, endowment, and comprehensive campaigns. Jose also serves on the Advisory Board of the Aravind Eye Foundation, which supports the India-based Aravind Eye Care System, the world's largest provider of eye care services.

A graduate of Lewis & Clark College in Oregon, Jose currently resides in Florham Park with his wife and three children.